Reconciling Differences Between the Large and Small Nations At Peace Conference Continues.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Paris, Wednesday, Feb. 5.—The American delegation to the peace conference has received numerous petitions from committees, municipalities and representatives of territories under Ottoman rule asking to be put under the protection of the United States, or at least that America shall be the mandatory country entrusted with their government.

More significant is the pressure to bring about a decision which America should be entrusted with the duty of looking after Constantinople, the Bosphorus and the Dardanelles, which, it is believed will be internationalized. Even the great European powers are urging America to accept the responsibility as she enjoys the confidence of all the peoples of the section involved.

The objections that American public opinion is opposed to any interference in the government of other countries, especially outside the American continent, it is observed, as a member of the Italian delegation has said, "by participating in the war and by taking a leading part in the peace conference, the United States has undertaken such moral obligations as almost constitute international duties, the fulfillment of which becomes a point of honor to any member of the society of nations."

Czechoslovakian Present Claims.
The supreme council of the peace conference was engaged today in receiving from M. Karamaniz and M. Benes a statement of the claims of the new Czechoslovak republic. Those delegates asked that Czechoslovakia comprise Bohemia, Moravia, Silesia, Slovakia and the Ruthenian section of Hungary as well as outlying regions where the Czech-Slovak majority is in the majority. This would embrace territory populated by about 13,000,000 people.

The necessity of giving the new state an outlet to the sea was emphasized. To this end, the delegates asked for the internationalization of waterways and railways giving them these outlets.

The supreme inter-allied war council Friday will decide as to the strength of the forces to be maintained in the service by the different entente armies. Conditions for the settlement of the conflict with Germany will also be considered.

A supreme allied blockade council has been organized to arrange for a relaxation of armaments and a reduction of armaments. Vance, McCormick, the American member, has been chosen chairman. The other members are Lord Robert Cecil and Baron Rothemann of the British empire, and Dr. Albert Thomas, minister of commerce for France, and Dr. Silvio Crespi, minister of food for Italy.

Reconciling Powers.
Steps for reconciling differences between the greater and lesser nations were begun yesterday, are continuing today.

In addition to winning four additional seats on the commission on the society of nations, it seems probable that the lesser powers also will be granted adequate representation in the executive body of the society as well as in the legislative section.

Nineteen small belligerent nations won definite recognition from the supreme council by the granting of four additional seats on the society of nations commission to lesser countries. This gives the small powers nine seats on the commission which will frame the plan for the society and ten seats on the society of nations.

According to the decision, the small powers of Poland, Roumania, Czechoslovakia and Greece will hold additional seats.

Covers One-third of Task.
The society of nations commission of the peace conference has virtually completed one-third of its task. It was officially announced this afternoon.

The society of nations commission in effect is a statement at greater length of the declaration of the full peace conference at its second session. This, it was stated, it was essential to a maintenance of the world settlement that a society of nations should be created to promote international cooperation, to insure the fulfillment of international obligations and to provide safeguards against war.

U. S. RIGHTS WILL BE GUARDED IN MEXICO, AMBASSADOR SAYS

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Washington, Feb. 6.—American rights in Mexico will be amply guarded by the Mexican government, according to Ambassador Henry P. Fletcher, who is here from Mexico City for conference with the state department. He said in a statement that the situation in the southern republic.

The ambassador declared today, the feeling there toward this country had become more friendly since the recall of the German minister, the notorious von Eckhardt, and the consequent cessation of anti-American propaganda. President Carranza in the last two years, he said, had accomplished a great work in preparing for a new government and in reorganizing the public service and had made such headway in this respect that the various bandit leaders now were without real influence and were operating in a spirit of self-interest.

Of paramount importance, the ambassador said, was the possibility that the trouble of oil interests, seen from the point of view of the United States, had been enforced and no taxes collected under the new constitution vesting direct ownership of all minerals, including petroleum, in the nation. The oil interests have objected vigorously to these decrees and the United States government has made certain representations.

STRIKE KILLS BUSINESS AT SEATTLE

LABOR COUNCIL CALLS SYMPATHETIC WALK-OUT OF 35,000
SHIPYARD EMPLOYEES.

SCHOOLS MAY CLOSE

Stores Expected to Shut Door Soon
—Tacoma Workers May Not
Join in Concerted Move.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Seattle, Feb. 6.—Union labor leaders declare that virtually 55,000 union members are on strike in Seattle. This number includes the 25,000 who walked out of the shipyards January 21. The general strike, they said, was the first ever called in the United States.

Most of the city stores announced they would remain open as long as their stocks last. When their shelves are empty they will be unable to replenish them as the truck drivers were among the strikers.

Street Lights Will Remain On.

Telephone operators remained at their posts, according to reports. Seattle expects to have lights tonight as the strike committee of the central labor council last night voted to exempt from the strike the engineers in the municipal lighting plants.

Schools may be forced to close by the strike of janitors and engineers. The office of the superintendent of schools stated. Moving picture houses may not open, it was believed, as they will be crippled by the strike of operators and musicians. Today's general walk-out was called by the Seattle central labor council as a sympathetic move to help shipyard workers who, numbering about 25,000, closed the big Seattle shipyards by striking January 21.

Increased Wages Asked.

The shipyard workers who are affiliated with the metal trades council, asked the mechanics he paid eight dollars a day and helpers and laborers seven and six dollars a day.

The metal workers made their demands when they announced that they were dissatisfied with the wages offered by the federal adjustment commission known as the Macy board.

Charles Piez, director general of the emergency fleet corporation, was quoted in a dispatch from Wilkes-Barre, Penn., last night as saying that the Seattle shipyard workers, in striking had disregarded a pledge made with the government that they would remain under the jurisdiction of the Macy board until March 31.

Tacoma Still Normal.

Tacoma, Wash., Feb. 6.—At 10 o'clock, the time set for a general walkout of union men in Tacoma, in sympathy with the Seattle strike, the city was quiet. The streets were running lights were on, newspapers were operating, restaurants were doing business and there was small indication that the metal industry here would be affected.

It is asserted the linemen and operators who operate the city light and power plants state that they will fight the necessary to retain their jobs. The members of the allied trades union adhered to the commands of the international officers who warned them against joining a sympathetic strike.

OPPOSES BILL FOR JOBS FOR SOLDIERS

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Madison, Feb. 6.—The Wisconsin assembly today killed a senate resolution to appoint a special committee to frame bills to get employment for returning soldiers. The house contended that government agencies were handling the problem.

The house amended a resolution to print 10,000 copies of the Roy F. Wilcox reconstruction report so that only 500 copies will be printed. This report was characterized by Assemblyman Donnelly Milwaukee as "political propaganda." The house adopted a resolution favoring home rule for Ireland.

Drivers on Lines Outside of City
Called Out; Considered Return to Refusal of Bonar Law.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

London, Feb. 6.—The government today continued to maintain its attitude that it could not interfere in the strikes now in progress for the reason that they were solely industrial controversies, but the great inconvenience which the London public is suffering, has prompted government measures of relief until a settlement is reached.

The fourth day of the tube strike found many thousands of persons standing in line waiting for the buses, while other thousands set out to walk to their places of employment. In this situation the war office mobilized more than 1,000 motor lorries along the principal routes of traffic.

The first step in the threatened extension of the railway strike beyond the lines in London was taken last night when some of the drivers on the Brighton and the Southwestern roads were called out. Freight service was partly suspended.

The calling out of the locomotive engineers on the Brighton and Southwestern lines, while fulfilling a threat to call a general strike on Monday, is also looked upon as a threat to the letter from Andrew Bonar Law, in which he refused to meet the strikers.

Officials of the locomotive engineering union met at Leeds last night and reiterated the charge that the government was "quibbling."

The national union of railwaymen, a much larger organization than the locomotive engineers' union, has not been affected in the present dispute, but has important negotiations pending with the government.

REST ROOM WILL BE DOUBLED IN SIZE

The women's rest room will be enlarged. Acting upon the promise of merchants and employers of female workers to support the new Federation of Women's Clubs, this morning arranged to take over the entire office occupied by the men's and women's employment bureau, doubling the size of the rest room.

The two big rooms will be connected by means of a ten-foot door. One division will be fitted up as a parlor. The other will be a rest room similar to that now in use. A shower bath will be installed. The kitchenette at the rear of the building will be accessible to both rooms.

About 40 girls are at present eating their noon lunches at the rest room. After the new arrangements have been completed, it is hoped that 100 can be accommodated.

Both sections of the rest room will be open in the evening. Any club or women's organization may use the rooms for evening meetings upon application to the matron.

The arrangements committee, which will commence work immediately, consists of Miss Mabel Greenwood, Mrs. T. S. Nolan, Mrs. W. S. Judd, and Miss Mary Mout. Mrs. Fred Capelle is chairman of the financial committee. Contributing member-ships by women will form one means of support.

The report of the committee in charge of securing a probation officer for the rest room, which has already secured the approval of the Chamber of Commerce and the Police and Fire commission, and will present the matter to the council. Members of the committee are Mrs. John R. Fox, Miss Elizabeth Patterson, L. M. Markham, and Mrs. S. M. Smith.

SHOPPERS TESTIFY IN ITALIAN CASE

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Witnesses who were present in the Italian grocery store in Beloit at the time Carmelo Cocivera shot and killed Thomas or Gaetana Cordia, Sunday night, were placed on the stand in court today to testify. The preliminary hearing of the accused Italian was opened this morning. Testimony was taken throughout the morning. The court adjourned at 1:30. The case was still in progress at 3 o'clock.

Dist. Atty. S. G. Dunwiddie is appearing for the prosecution, while T. Woolser, Beloit, is defending Cocivera.

Cordia met his death by a shot fired from a gun in the hands of Cocivera, the verdict rendered by the coroner's jury in court this morning. Those who served on the jury appointed by County Coroner Lynn Whaley, were Henry Dorrback, Simon Strong, Henry Miller, Charles Oliver, Joe Knight and James K. Anderson.

Considerable interest is being shown in the hearing by Beloit Italians. Regardless of the outcome of the hearing, Cocivera will be bound over for trial at the March term of circuit court, which begins before Judge Grimsa, March 3.

U. S. Senate Defends New British Embargo

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Washington, Feb. 6.—Senate discussions of the new British import embargo, renewed today following yesterday's sharp criticisms, swung to defense of the British policy of protecting her industries and the Weeks resolution, looking to a protest to England by the state department, was displaced and sent to the senate calendar. Its further consideration will require a majority vote.

CONFEREES AGREE ON WAR REVENUE BILL; SUBJECT TO FURTHER REVISION

Bulk of Taxes Are Levied on War Excess Profits of Corporations and on Incomes, Individual and Corporation.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Washington, Feb. 6.—With the submission to congress today of the conference agreement on the long delayed revenue bill the American people were presented with their prospective federal tax budget for 1919 and ensuing years—something over $6,000,000,000 this year and $4,000,000,000 the year after, subject to the revision expected to be undertaken by the next congress.

The conference report, presented to the house by democratic leader Ritchie, in what regarded as assured of adoption by both house and senate and of approval by the president. It thus promises to be the future American levy, which now is about $4,500,000,000. Besides this year's tax levy of about $6,000,000,000 further treasury needs, to be raised by bonds and other means are estimated by the treasury at about $12,000,000,000.

BILLBOARDS' DOOM METED OUT IN GOOD ROADS CAMPAIGN

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Madison, Feb. 6.—Speaking at a so-called "Booster meeting" at the Wisconsin road school here last night, Hazelwood, chairman of the Wisconsin Highway commission, launched a campaign against billboards advertising along Wisconsin highways. The meeting was held in the assembly chamber and was attended by members of the legislature and about 500 delegates from all sections of the state.

One distracting thing along the country highway is the advertising, declared Mr. Hazelwood. "We see the bill board destroy the beauty of many pretty glens and beautiful curves. The greed of advertisers, has destroyed many beauty spots by putting up advertisements of patent medicine, Bull Durham tobacco, and corsets. This destruction of beauty has been somewhat handled through city ordinances issuing permits and licenses. Women's clubs in our cities have done much in the matter of curbing landscape destruction by billboards. Little has been done in rural districts to make this certifying."

PROPOSES "AD" TAX

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

It seems that the most effective way of handling the question is the exacting of a tax. I believe we could drive away much of our advertising bill boards by levying an annual tax of 50 cents per square yard for all advertising on bill boards that can reach the eye of the traveling public. In order not to be unduly hard on those who have already erected their bill boards, half or quarter of the rate might be charged them until they take them down or have them repainted."

REVOLUTIONISTS AGREE TO JOIN SOCIALISTS

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Bern, Wednesday, Feb. 5.—The international socialist conference today settled the questions of responsibility for the war and the future position of the German socialists in the conference by adopting a compromise resolution declaring that the conference had passed over the question of responsibility and the German revolutionists had agreed to accept the participation of the German majority socialists in the reconstruction of the socialist international.

A strong tendency to exclude the German majority socialists was evident in the early discussions. Norman Thuermer, addressing the conference, declared that the German socialists always had opposed militarism, adding:

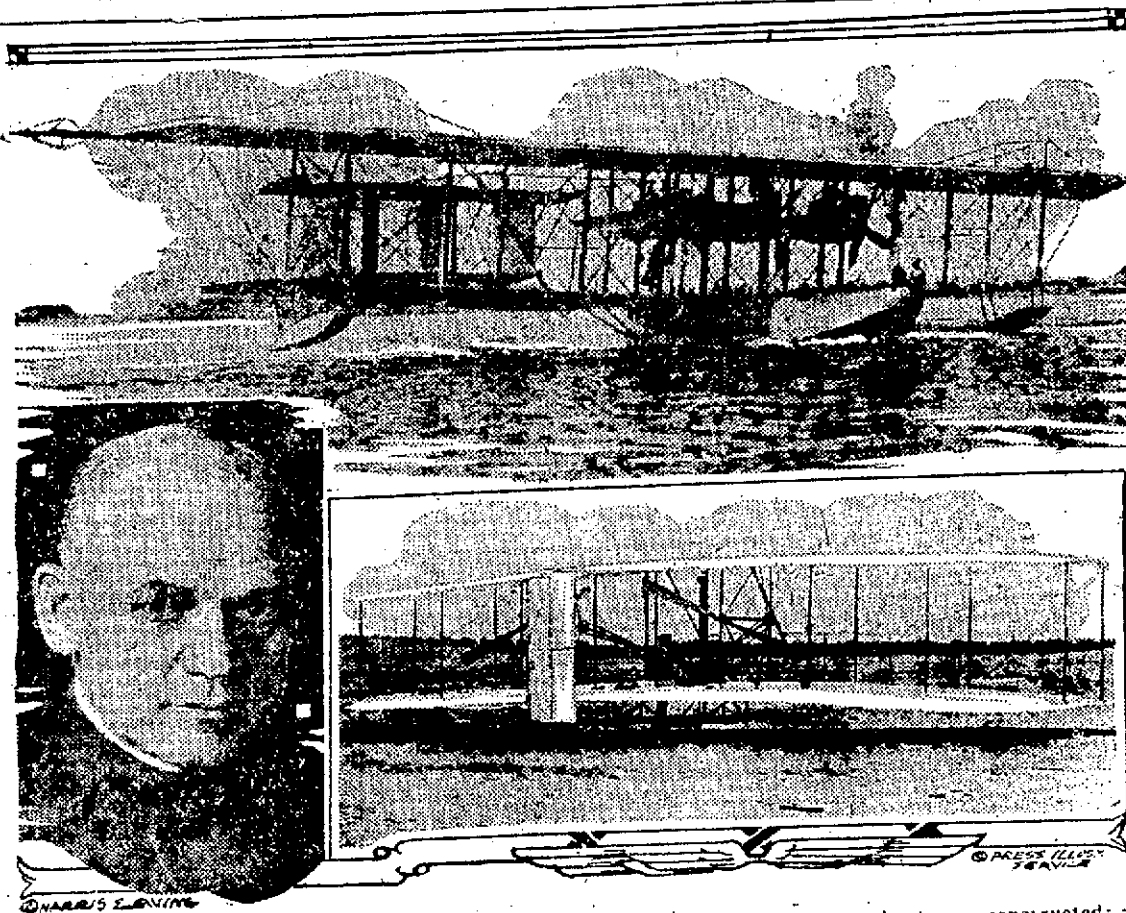

"The young republic of Germany is ready to consent to a general disarmament on the condition that all other countries to the same."

BANQUET PLANNED FOR FATHER AND SON WEEK

In order to bring the attention of fathers to a new and larger responsibility to their boys, especially during the reconstruction period, the "Father and Son week" will be strongly supported by the local Y. M. C. A. in co-operation with the churches of the city. The week starts Monday, and will continue until February 17. A big banquet with a nationally-known speaker is planned for Wednesday, February 12, at the Y. M. C. A. Toasts, songs, stunts, and music are being arranged by A. S. Phelps, who is to have the campaign in charge. Announcement of this "get together week" is to be made Sunday in the churches of the city. The committee, which will have charge of the affair, will have a meeting on Friday, Monday and Tuesday of next week will be devoted to arrangements.

WONES SAYS WORK FOR BOYS IS EMPHASIZED

Boys' work in connection with the Y. M. C. A. is receiving added impetus throughout the state, W. H. Wones, Wisconsin secretary, stated today. The organization of clubs by the local Y. M. C. A. is an instant, he said. "The Y. M. C. A. is thinking more of the boys of the entire community—not of its members alone," he said. "In Beloit, the sixth, seventh and eighth grades are doing good work, the cost of which is covered by a school board appropriation."

In Milwaukee, 27 boys' clubs have been organized. These boys are not all Y. M. C. A. members, but receive many of the same privileges. One man devotes his entire time to supervision of this work.

At Madison, where a new building is being erected it is proposed to have no active membership. The building will be a community center supported by contributions. Wausau, Appleton and Superior are taking active steps to improve their organizations.

The employed boys' club here is only the first step in an extensive program of this kind, A. S. Phelps, boys' chairman, stated today. He conferred with Mr. Wones regarding this subject.

Services in honor of the Boy Scouts will be held at the Baptist church Sunday morning by Rev. R. G. Pierson.

COUNTY NEAR EAST CAMPAIGN DELAYED

The near east campaign in Beloit started today, Senator J. M. Whitehead, county chairman and member of the state committee, said this morning. The quota set for that city is slightly over $5,000, and with the surrounding towns will total approximately $30,000. J. R. Miller, who handled the Beloit Red Cross drive, is in charge. E. G. Green, head of the organization, said that he thought the drive would be a success.

Solicitation in Edgerton and Evansville has not yet started. The influenza ban is still on in the schools of those cities and the committees will wait until conditions for collecting are more favorable. Senator Whitehead will go to Edgerton, Saturday, to complete plans for the campaign.

"With Janesville and Beloit over the top, I think this county will be able to report that war quota will be filled," said Mr. Whitehead today.

The factories must come across. This is the unanimous opinion of the near east committee, which awaits subscriptions sufficient to put the per capita quota of 33 cents over in the city.

Yesterday a total of $27 was received from five different manufacturing concerns. One subscription made by the head of a factory was for two dollars. Subscriptions from other plants have run as high as $150.

Fifty per cent of the factories have made no response at all, after a letter from the committee, putting contributions entirely up to the company officials. The 30 concerns which have made subscriptions have added a total of $237.95 to the near east fund.

In direct contrast to the meager showing of the factories, the splendid contribution of the State School for the Blind is mentioned by the committee.

Dr. R. L. MacGonack, who saw several months' service at Fort Riley, Kan., as a first lieutenant in the medical corps, will practice in Janesville. Dr. MacGonack comes to this city from Chicago, where he was a surgeon. His new quarters will be in the former office of Dr. W. A. Dunn.

Dr. MacGonack was sent to Fort Riley immediately upon enlistment, where he entered medical officers' training. After being in the school for about a month, he was commissioned and made an instructor in field hospital work. He continued this duty until the signing of the armistice.

Shortly after the armistice was signed, Dr. MacGonack was ordered to overseas duty in France. He was sent to Hoboken, New Jersey, but here his order was revoked. He was discharged from Camp Crane, Pennsylvania.

Instead of the present 5 per cent flat charge, cigar rates fixed by the conference range from $1.50 per thousand, instead of $1 on cigars weighing three pounds or less, per thousand to $15 per thousand, a 50 per cent increase on cigars sold in excess of 20 cents each. ## Five Transports Sail; 15,000 Yanks on Board

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Washington, Feb. 6.—Departure from France of five transports with more than 650 officers and 15,000 men was announced today by the war department. Among the units aboard are the 371st and 372nd infantry complete, parts of several other infantry regiments and the 68th coast artillery regiment, complete. The transports are to arrive at New York, Boston and Newport News between Feb. 12 and 18.

EXTRA LONG WEAR FROM SHOES

T. D. Collins of Ocala, Hawaii, makes a remarkable statement which demonstrates the money-saving durability of Neolin Soles.
He writes: "After wearing a pair of Neolin-soled shoes off and on for thirty-three months, I wore them on a trip to the volcano of Kilauea and walked around the crater over hot lava six times and still the soles showed only slight signs of wear."
This experience is not accidental. It results from the scientific process by which Neolin Soles are made to be exactly what soles should be—comfortable, waterproof and exceedingly economical because of the long wear they give.

Get them on new shoes for all members of the family and have them put on worn shoes. They are made by Tiro & Rubber Company, Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels, guaranteed to outwear any other heels.

27 CHIMNEY FIRES SINCE DECEMBER 1

Twenty-seven chimney fires have been recorded by the fire department from December 1, 1918, to February 5, 1919, according to figures compiled by Chief Murphy. On Wednesday the department answered two alarms, both chimney fires, and it is the opinion of Chief Murphy that the department will average one chimney fire a day until the cold weather is gone.

"Soft coal and defective chimneys," Chief Murphy said, when asked the cause of the large number of chimney fires. "Many of the residents are burning soft coal," he said, "and until the cold weather is over and furnaces and stoves are done away with for the winter there will be a large number of chimney fires."

In discussing the situation yesterday Chief Murphy stated that while the firemen had made a careful study of conditions it was impossible to find a remedy which would have a tendency to prevent chimney fires.

"There is no preventative for chimney fires," said Chief Murphy, "as long as the householders burn soft coal. The chimneys become defective in several manners, due to the burning of soft coal, and I can see no remedy for the fires."

The Largest and Best Illustrated Book on the War's History

Extract From the Author's Foreword

Entertaining visualization of the war is best attained through photographs. For this reason this book has been profusely illustrated and the hundreds of scenes photographed during the four years of campaigning on all the great fronts, in themselves tell the narrative in a convincing manner. These pictures were taken by the most skilled men attached to the fighting forces. Many of them since America got into the war, are the official output of the Bureau of Public Information in Washington. Others were taken by men who risked their lives for a "close-up."

The events of the war have been brought down to the present day. No vital episode of the struggle has been overlooked. The narrative is complete from the demolition of Liege to the signing of the terms of the armistice and the abdication of the Kaiser. It is hoped that it will do full justice to the sacrifice, courage, steadfastness in the face of apparent defeat, of the tireless fighting men of Great Britain, France, Italy, Belgium, Serbia and the United States.

The Daily Gazette is pleased to announce the distribution of this War Book through its Subscription Department. ## Most Dangerous Poisons.

The most dangerous of all poisons are the toxins of infectious disease; the next most dangerous are the toxins of fatigue, fever, whether of muscles or nerves, produces waste products, "ashes" which are poisonous. When these toxins have piled up in our blood to a certain pitch we feel tired, so that fatigue is a form of self-poisoning. When we quit work or sleep or take food these poisons are neutralized or burned up in the system or washed and breathed out of it.

ROTARIANS BANQUET WOMEN AT HOTEL

The first annual women's night banquet and entertainment of the local Rotary club which was held at the Myers hotel last evening, proved a most enjoyable affair. Nearly 50 couples attended, 25 of them coming from Rockford on a special inter-urban car.

Interspersed with much humor, the addresses by Mr. Bearmore and Judge Pfeiffer on the subjects "Polka Like Us" and "Canning the Butter" were especially interesting.

M'VICAR ASKS FOR AID OF MERCHANTS

"It is they who will derive direct benefit from the influx of money for stock in the organization is proving more successful, but is not proceeding at the speed that it should, he said. A total of $300,000 must be raised before the stockholders' meeting will be held, and the board of directors and officers in the new concern elected.

A thorough canvass of the fourth ward will be made by cricketers soon, and a large amount of stock is expected to be disposed of in that section of the city. Lack of workers, whose other duties have interfered with concerted action, has been one drawback, Mr. McVicar stated.

JUDGE DISMISSES NEW ASSAULT CASE

Arrested yesterday and freed today. That is what happened to John Hopkins, owner of the East Side Hitch Barn. Hopkins was arrested yesterday morning charged with assaulting Palmer C. Henderson. He was taken before Judge Maxfield and pleaded not guilty to the charge of assault and battery. The hearing was set for this morning at 10 o'clock this morning. Both Hopkins and Cunningham with their attorneys appeared in the court room. There was a short conference between the two attorneys and when the case was called by Judge Maxfield it was agreed by all parties concerned to drop the charges.

FARMERS EXHIBIT GRAINS IN MADISON

Rock county is well represented at the state grain exhibit being held at Madison this week, according to R. E. Acheson, county agent, who was a visitor at the show yesterday.

"I haven't seen such a great exhibit of grain since the Chicago exposition," he said this morning. Six farmers from this county have big exhibits at the show. They are: Edgar Huesbe, town of Beloit, spring wheat; Burton Hopper, Beloit, silver king corn, pedigree barley and spring wheat; Noyes Reassner, Beloit, five corn exhibits and 15 sheaf exhibits of different grains; Victor Tullis, Evansville, pedigree barley and pedigree oats; Frank M. Johnson, Evansville, pedigree oats and Golden Glow corn; J. R. Thorpe, route 29, Beloit, Wisconsin No. 3 corn, pedigree spring wheat, 50-acre exhibit of Silver King corn. Mr. Thorpe also has a 10-acre Silver King corn exhibit in the honorary class but cannot compete for prizes as he has held first place several times before.

That some of the Rock county exhibitors ought to figure in the prizes is the opinion of Mr. Acheson who states that the local exhibits are on a par with the best there.

LOOKING AROUND

A man went fishing but had no luck. He stopped at a fish market on his way home, so he might bring a nice string home to his wife. That's an old story. Here's a new version of it: Two overseas soldiers went into a local dry goods store and something they bought, one—something she'll think I brought, ever from across," said one of them. And he hooked his thumb over his shoulder, to indicate the general direction of Europe.

One of the fellows at the employed boys' feed at the "Y" last night, was "looking around." Another fellow soaked him in the ear with a piece of biscuit. And it was up to A. S. Phelps boys' director, to intervene before the injured one could get even by sailing a coughnut at the offender.

Four soldiers wearing the gold chevrons were eating at the Tea Bell the other evening. People began to stare at the soldier's head. But in this line it was lacking. They missed their mess kits. Four heads together spent at least 15 minutes trying to figure out something a piece of the soldier's head, and they weren't worried about expenses at that. Must have just had a pay day. Others came and went while they still studied the menu. And they ended it up by the fourth taking just the same as the third to help speed things along.

Get off the table, the fourth was admonished as he tried to find out what his lucky draw was going to be.

He got into "No Man's Land." But it didn't take him very long to get out again. "Wasn't by mistake, neither. He was looking for something which was pretty valuable to him.

The woman's rest room was crowded with girls just after the noon hour the other day.

A man's head was stuck in at the door. He looked all around and around, but in vain.

Then a girlish voice in the rear piped out: "No Man's Land."

The laughingly retreated, but was still without his wife.

Ice for the coming summer? That is the question that is being asked now. Possibly two weeks from today the people will not care whether there is any ice or not. A good cold wave is predicted by the weather man.

In Chicago yesterday a man was accused of marrying too many girls and in this city this morning a man was arrested for running away from his only wife. How some men differ.

Be calm people, be calm! The waiting issued by Chief Murphy at the theatre last evening and the people heeded his warning. As a result no casualties resulted from the blaze.

According to a report issued this morning an interurban car between this city and Rockford has not jumped the tracks in the past twenty-four hours. They certainly are improving the system.

WELL KNOWN FORGER SENTENCED BY JUDGE

Henry Jarvis, alias Henry Johnson alias Frank Cole, was sentenced to three years in Waupun in the municipal court late yesterday afternoon after he pleaded guilty to the charge of passing five forged checks on villagers of Milton.

Jarvis who is known by several different names is well known in the middle west as a forger of extraordinary skill. He has served sentences in Waupun and Joliet and on several different occasions has been in jail on the same charge.

Although 6 years of age he still maintains the skill of a youth and his handling of a pen is considered marvelous by the police departments of several large cities.

About a week ago Jarvis then using the name of Frank Cole appeared in Milton and started to get acquainted. Dressed in the latest cut clothes and having an extraordinary command of the English language he was an easy matter for Jarvis to gain the friendship of the people, with whom he came in contact.

Having become fairly well known around the village he started cashing checks. The checks generally called for amounts ranging from $5 to $10 and the money was gladly given to the man.

A few days ago his actions aroused the suspicion of several Milton residents and an investigation was started. As a result Jarvis was arrested yesterday afternoon and immediately brought to Janesville and taken before Judge Maxfield where he entered a plea of guilty.

Jarvis was taken to Waupun at noon today by Sheriff Beloy.

MRS. PETER CALDOW IS CALLED BY DEATH

Mrs. Peter K. Caldow passed away at thirty-three o'clock last evening at her home, 544 South Main street, after an illness of several weeks. She was 56 years of age at the time of her death.

A devout member of the Presbyterian church and a member of the Royal Neighbors, she was also prominent in many other local activities and enjoyed a large number of acquaintances. Her gentle disposition and sterling character remain as bright memories of a lovable woman.

She is survived by her sorrowing husband and two sons, George, two and sisters, Mrs. Chas. Butler of this city and Mrs. John Little of the town of La Prairie. Three grand children, Katherine, Dorothy and Jean Caldow also survive.

Funeral services will be held from the home at 1:30 Saturday afternoon. Rev. J. A. Melrose officiating. Interment will be made in Oak Hill cemetery.

PRIVATE WILLIAM HILL HAS RETURNED TO DUTY

Mrs. Martha Manthel, 606 Locust street, received a telegram from the war department yesterday afternoon stating that her brother, Private William C. Hill, who was reported missing since September 29th, had returned to duty.

No mention was made in the telegram whether Private Hill had been a prisoner of war or whether he was wounded and recently returned from the hospital. Mrs. Manthel previously received two telegrams from the war department, one stating that her brother was severely wounded in action and the other claiming that Private Hill was missing in action.

Private William Hill is a member of Co. C, 138 Infantry, of the 35th Division, and was in several of the largest battles of the war. His brother, Private Arthur A. Hill, was wounded September 15, while a member of Co. K, 47th Infantry, 4th division, and at present is in the hospital at Mesuea, France.

The rest of the day will be devoted to going over the new schedule. Monday of next week everything will be ready to start out the semester.

Miss G. Callen, girls' physical director, is working on a schedule of basketball games which will be played in the near future. The girls will be divided into teams by classes, somewhat like the class games held by the boys.

The teams will then play and eliminate the weaker ones, so that the final games will be played for the championship of the school. Miss Callen recently announced that her night school class composed of working girls will also widen their scope of playing and soon take on out of town teams of girls. The nights school class has already played one game, having defeated Elkhorn some weeks ago.

CROWD REMAINS CALM IN BURNING THEATER

Due to the presence of mind of Chief Murphy and the quick work of the local fire department, a panic was averted in the majestic theatre about 8 o'clock last evening when a film caught fire.

The alarm was sounded and the firemen made a quick dash for the movie house. Upon arriving the men rushed to the operator's room which was in flames and Chief Murphy seeing the large audience present, all that remained to remain calm as there was no danger.

At the time of the outbreak of the fire the theatre was well filled and it was feared that the flames shot through the door of the operator's room. The crowd, however, heeded the advice of Chief Murphy and remained quietly in their seats.

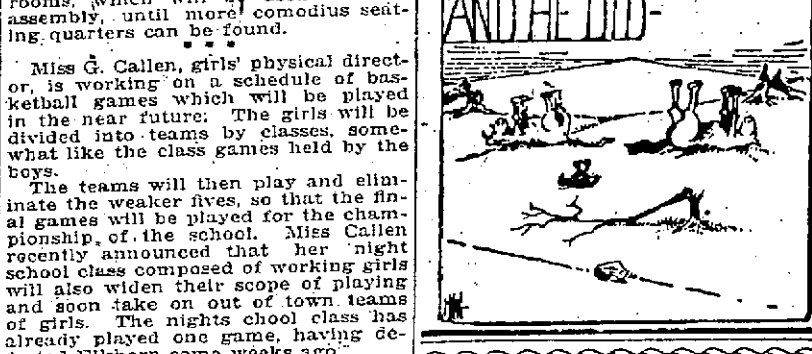

Charles Cox, the operator, luckily escaped with only slight burns. The film was destroyed and the damage to the theatre will total about $250.

Attorney Enslaw, master of the theatre, in discussing the fire last evening paid high tribute to the fire department and stated that it was due only to the quick work of the department that the place was saved from destruction.

He was well pleased with the work of the department and also stated that he had no doubt, but that if it were not for the warning issued by Chief Murphy.

The Same Thing.
"Mamma," said five-year-old Paul, "Is there a country of Lard and what kind of a flag has it?" "No, there isn't," said his mother. He thought a minute and said: "Mamma, it wasn't Lard at all; it was Greece."

A WOMAN'S BUSINESS

FROM ANOTHER WORLD.

Janet's new acquaintance was named Craton. Dorothea Strang Craton. She was more patrician about emphasizing the Strang part than the Craton part. The Strangs, she soon mentioned to Janet, were the old New York Strangs. Mrs. Sedgman knew the family of course. Every body from New York knew the Strangs, who had that wonderfully beautiful old house at the corner of Broadway place. Oh, yes, Janet remembered them well by name, and knew that dignified mansion. Had often wondered in fact who lived there. This pleased Mrs. Craton, who had married Bob Craton's money, and had resided in a little ever since. Somehow she had not realized she should have to take Bob along with the money.

"Not that he isn't a good fellow," she said. "But, as you know, he has enormous mining lands in the north-west and he's away a good deal."

"It occurred to Janet that Mrs. Craton said this as one of Bob's recommendations—that he was away a good deal."

"Don't you ever go on trips with him? It must be interesting seeing that country and meeting that sort of people."

Mrs. Craton stared. "Business trips—mining lands mining people—interesting?" Her surprise was real. Janet laughed at her incredulity. "Why, yes, I should think it would be lots of fun. It would give you a new viewpoint. It would be an adventure. You and Mr. Craton could make believe you were on a second honeymoon. Doesn't he—wouldn't he—like to have you go sometimes?"

"He's always imploring me to go," answered Dorothea, who had been waiting for a chance to say so. "I've been to a few times. It's Bob's idea of a little vacation—to drag me on a two weeks' tour of the coal fields and iron mines. He thinks I ought to make friends with the miners' wives and sew for their babies and send them checks at Christmas. Bob's like you; he thinks I ought to do such things. He doesn't realize how taxing and tiring they are to a woman. He doesn't see how impossible the food is or the dreadful beds in those mining towns. I have it in my mind."

"Bob's so interested in it himself he can't see why I'm not. Yet he is never interested in the things I do. He doesn't even trouble to remember our wedding anniversary. Or my birthday—always. Why, I doubt if Bob actually knows the color of my eyes. I'm sure he doesn't know the size of my gloves and shoes or how many buttons I take in my tear and we've been married eleven years," concluded Mrs. Craton with a sigh.

"But think what a lot of independence you have! Janet would have to do something. 'Think of the things you have time to do. And—the money you have to do them with.'"

"Dorothea Craton looked curiously at Janet."

"There's no special novelty in money, my dear girl. The Strangs have had money for centuries. And Bob's family all have it too. What's money when you're bored to death, and alone half the time, and ill?"

"Oh, in a sense, yes," answered Dorothea with a touch of impatience. "My nerves are all on edge. The sea-sickness I feel in a boat is a woman. And I have so many activities—benevolent things and meetings, and subscription lectures and musicals. My perfect afternoon work connected with them—you've no idea."

Janet wanted to laugh, but was too genuinely interested in this creature to do so. She was so sure she would learn more of her. She must find out if she had a different side—a really human side.

And she did.

A Guide to GOOD MANNERS

By Janice

A man should always permit a woman to precede him when boarding a train or street car. If he is her escort he assists her up gently by the elbow. Should she secure a seat where there is no room for him he stands before her or as near as possible.

In leaving the car the man goes first in order to assist his companion in alighting.

In the matter of fares, of course, if a man is escorting a woman he should pay all the fares and fees for her comfort and transportation. But it is not necessary under any other circumstances.

TASTY DESSERTS.
Mock Cherry Pie—One cup cranberries, one cup seeded raisins, one-half cup water, pinch salt, one teaspoon cornstarch.

Wash the raisins and cover with one cup cold water; put on fire and as soon as they come to a boil add cornstarch which has been mixed with cold water; boil two minutes; add salt. Remove from fire. Wash the cranberries and cut in half; add to the cooled raisins; then add sugar; do not boil after adding cranberries. Lay down the pie in a regular pie crust, sprinkle with a little flour, wet edge with cold milk, put in the filling, cover and press edges together; brush top with milk; bake in hot oven 35 to 40 minutes.

Hasty Pudding—Good for old and young, good for morning, noon and night, and easily made. Why not try it, either with maple syrup, maple sugar, brown sugar, or only just molasses.

Put one quart of water on to boil in top of double boiler; when boiling add one teaspoon salt and the cornmeal slowly. Boil one hour, stirring quite often. This is just plain boiled mush.

Baked Apple and Rice—Three quarter cup rice, four medium sized cooking apples, four tablespoons sugar, one teaspoon cinnamon, one teaspoon salt, one teaspoon butter substitute. The rice is washed, boiled, blanched and salted as usual. Spread on deep pie plate that has been brushed with butter substitute. The apples are washed, pared, cut in half and put on the rice. Be sure rice is entirely covered with apples. Sprinkle with a little salt, sugar and cinnamon, and whatever butter substitute is left over. Cover pie plate, put in hot oven. When apples are nearly tender, remove cover and bake until browned nicely. Serve with milk. This makes a very good dessert.

TRY THESE.
To remove brown marks from dishes caused by baking in the oven, rub them well with common salt. To make a cake light, add a few drops of glycerin when mixing in the proportion of a teaspoonful to a pound of flour.

To remove paint from clothing, saturate the spots two or three times with equal parts of ammonia and turpentine and then wash out in soap.

SIDE TALKS

—BY—
RUTH CAMERON

TAKING LESSONS.

Do you believe in taking lessons? I recently heard some people making fun of a woman whom they had known in her childhood. She had married into a much more sophisticated world than she had been used to, and in order to be at home in it, had humbly engaged a woman who knew all about such things to give her lessons in the etiquette of her new surroundings.

They thought her funny. The people who criticized her thought this very funny for some reason or other. One called it absurd. Another stigmatized it as "putting on airs."

To my mind it was an example of simple pure sense. In order to be comfortable in the world in which she must spend much of her time in the future, she must know certain things. Doubtless she would pick up these things in the course of time, but in the meantime she would be very uncomfortable. And to have herself engaged a woman who knew all about such things to give her lessons in the subject one wishes to master.

How Much Discomfort She Will Save Her Partners.

Another woman I know had just taken up bridge as a sort of game at it haphazardly and picking up stray bits of information as she goes along, she, too, is taking lessons. She will probably reach a state of bridge ability in a few weeks in this way that it would take her a year of haphazard playing to acquire. Think of the discomfort that her partners will be saved. No miserable disappointments for them in the subject one wishes to master.

Well, after the monkey learned that the Yellow Dog Tramp wanted to go to work to help Uncle Sam and Aunt Columbia, as I mentioned in the story before this, he said to himself:

"You can whitewash the back fence if you want to. It may take you a week or it may take you a month, for I don't know how fast you can whitewash."

Well, I'll start right in," said the Yellow Dog Tramp bravely, and he stood up on his hind legs and wagged his tail.

"You'd better wait until tomorrow morning," said the monkey. "It's too late now, and you couldn't see in the dark."

"I should think one could whitewash in the dark," said the tramp dog. "But just as you say," and then he went over to the kitchen stove and lay down on the little rug and went to sleep, for he was very tired, because he had tramped all day long, you see.

Just as he was about to go to sleep, he heard a little voice in a whisper to Billy Bunny. "He looks tired," and after that the monkey got the supper ready and when everything was nice and hot and on the table the Yellow Dog Tramp opened his eyes and yawned and pretty soon he was wide awake enough to sit down to eat.

"Well, by and by it was time to go to bed, so they all went to sleep, and just about midnight a big owl looked in through the window where the silvery moon threw a bright light on the bed where Billy Bunny and the little monkey were sound asleep.

"Ha, ha," said the big owl to himself. "I must get that little rabbit. So he flew up and perched himself on the roof and thought and thought how he could get inside the little house. Well, by and by, after he had flown around and around and had pecked in through all the windows, he looked down at the chimney and then he carefully stepped over the edge, and, spreading his wings out as far as he could, jumped right down to the bottom. But, goodness me, when he rolled out on the hearth into the sitting room he looked just like a crow. Why, he was so covered with soot that it would have taken the Gold Dust Twins twenty-three days and one night to clean him up."

"What's that noise?" barked the Yellow Dog Tramp, and he ran in from the kitchen and looked all around. And at first he didn't see the owl, for he was so black with soot, you know. But what that Yellow Dog Tramp did when he did see that that owl he told you in the next story, for there's no more room in this one.

Cadiz, Spain, was founded about four centuries earlier than Rome and about 350 years later than Athens. It is quite generally conceded that the founders were Phoenician adventurers from Tyre and that the settlement was made about 1100 B. C. At the end of the second Punic war the city became Roman and advanced to great prosperity and dignity, and at one time ranked second to Rome in influence.

ATTENDANCE IN RURAL SCHOOLS AT LOW EBB

Rural school attendance during the past five months has been the lowest in the history of Rock county, according to County Supt. O. D. Antisdell, who is now checking over the attendance lists recently sent in by county teachers. The epidemic of influenza is given as the reason for the slump in attendance. Many pupils were ill while others did not attend school for fear of contracting the disease. The reports received from the teachers are for the five months ending February 1.

Hears From Germany
Appleton.—"We are all in good health and getting along nicely, so do not worry about us. We all love and greetings." That was the brief assuring message that came to Ernest Homberger of this city from his father, Michael Homberger, Frankfurt on Main, Germany, the first word he has heard from his parents in two years. The message came through the American Red Cross.

TRAVELING LIBRARIES POPULAR IN SCHOOLS

Traveling libraries are being used more extensively in the rural schools of the county than ever before, according to reports reaching the office of O. D. Antisdell, county superintendent of schools. Great results have been obtained from the use of these libraries in the past by the pupils and their parents and it is evident that they are becoming more interested in this year. These libraries, which are large shipments of books sent out from Madison, are loaned to schools for several weeks' use. Upon the expiration of the time limit on a lot of books they are sent from school to school and finally returned to the Wisconsin free library commission at Madison.

Heart and Home Problems

BY ELIZABETH THOMPSON
LETTERS MAY BE ADDRESSED TO MRS. THOMPSON, IN CARE OF THE GAZETTE.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am a girl sixteen. I have been going with my boy for some time. He is a very nice boy. Do you think the boy will think more of me if I don't?

(2) Do you think that a girl of sixteen is too young to have a boy? I have dated more than twice, but my mother does not approve of it.

(3) Do you think I am too young to wear my hair? I have it cut short. (1) When the boy is older, if not now, he will think more of you if you refuse to kiss him. You are too young to permit a boy to make love to you. Your mother is right. Twice a week is as often as you should have a date with a young man.

(3) No, I think you are old enough, unless you are small for your age.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have been long desiring to get a typewriter since in some cases it is absolutely needed. Since there are so many different kinds I don't know which one is best. Being limited as to means I would also like to know which one is the cheapest. Sometimes I wish to get a second-hand typewriter in order to save money. Do you think this is a wise plan?

There are several excellent typewriters on the market now. According to your use, have the different companies demonstrate for you and give you prices. A second-hand machine is a very good thing. It may be obtained from a reliable company could be depended upon for service.

Let me caution you to buy a machine with a standard type board. Most machines now are being made with the standard key board.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am twenty-two years of age and a high school graduate in France. I have been over there for two years and writes to me often. When he went he told me to go with other fellows and have a good time.

I have been going with one fellow almost a year and I know I love him more than the soldier. I lock off my engagement ring which the soldier had given me and became engaged to the man I really love. If I tell to soldier it will break his heart. For I know he loves me dearly. What shall I do?

You will have to tell the soldier even if it does break his heart. The human heart, however, is constructed so that it does not suffer very long. Probably the soldier will feel very badly at first, but then he will look for happiness from some one else.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have been going with a girl friend for some time and love her very much. Her father is dead and her mother has married again. Her step-father does not want her to go with boys. I have talked to him, but never said anything about this girl until last Sunday. She had been sick and so I asked him how she was. He just walked away.

The girl also goes with other boys and does not say anything to me about it. I am not jealous over her, but love her dearly. She has often asked me where I was going to live when I got married. Do you think she loves me?

Her mother says not care if she goes with boys. I can go with other girls, but I do not want to get her up.

LONG JOHN.
The girl does not love you or she would not go with other boys. Probably she is too young to be in love. Since her father does not want her to go with boys, keep her as a friend if you want to, but do not think of her as a sweetheart unless she is in her twenties. It is all right for her to go with other boys without mentioning it to you unless you and she are engaged.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are four girls in grade school. We are going to give a class party. There will be a strange girl and two strange boys. Should one of us go around with the strange girl and boys and introduce them to each other? If not, what should we do?

FOUR FRIENDS.
Yes, one of you should see that the strangers are introduced.

HEALTH TALKS

THE FLU STILL FLICKERS.

Prof. Victor C. Vaughan, of the Surgeon General's office, discussing the influenza epidemic, in a recent meeting of the American Public Health Association, observed that the respiratory diseases kill some forty per cent more men than women, since men move about and are exposed more than women—exposed, you should understand, to the cold air.

Anything like that, but to the spray or contact infection from persons with slight respiratory troubles, vulgarly called "colds." The recent statistics show that influenza, if that is the name of the epidemic, has chiefly affected persons from 20 to 55 years of age, persons presumably in the prime of vigor and health. One reason for this is that only persons of that age have been serving in the army; another is that both men and women of that age get about more than younger or older people.

In some places the health authorities required isolation of "flu" patients for two weeks. It is justifiable to isolate such victims of respiratory infection.

In some places influenza was made a reportable disease. It was up to the doctor to decide whether to report a case of acute respiratory infection as influenza. He had no positive means of determining whether a given case was one of the "flu" or just the common acute respiratory infection usually called "grip" or "cold."

BACK LIKE A BOARD? IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

There's no use suffering from the aching agony of back pain. Don't wait until it "passes off." It only comes back. Find the cause and stop it. Diseased conditions of kidneys are usually indicated by such aching back, swelling, and other symptoms, which are nature's signals for help!

Here's the remedy. When you feel the first twinges of back pain or experience any of these symptoms, get busy at once. Go to your druggist and get a box of the pure, original GOLD MEDAL Easaron Oil Capsules, imported fresh every month from the laboratories in Easaron, Holland. Pleasant and easy to take, they instantly attack the poisonous germs clogging your system and bring quick relief.

For over two hundred years they have been helping the sick. Why not try them? Sold everywhere by reliable druggists. Money back if they do not help you. Ask for "GOLD MEDAL" and be sure the name "GOLD MEDAL" is on the box.

Try This If You Have Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and to soothe the scalp. It came out of God's hand. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely destroy every sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

COUGHED NIGHT AND DAY FOR TWO YEARS

Mr. Parkhurst tells how he found quick relief from chronic bronchial trouble.

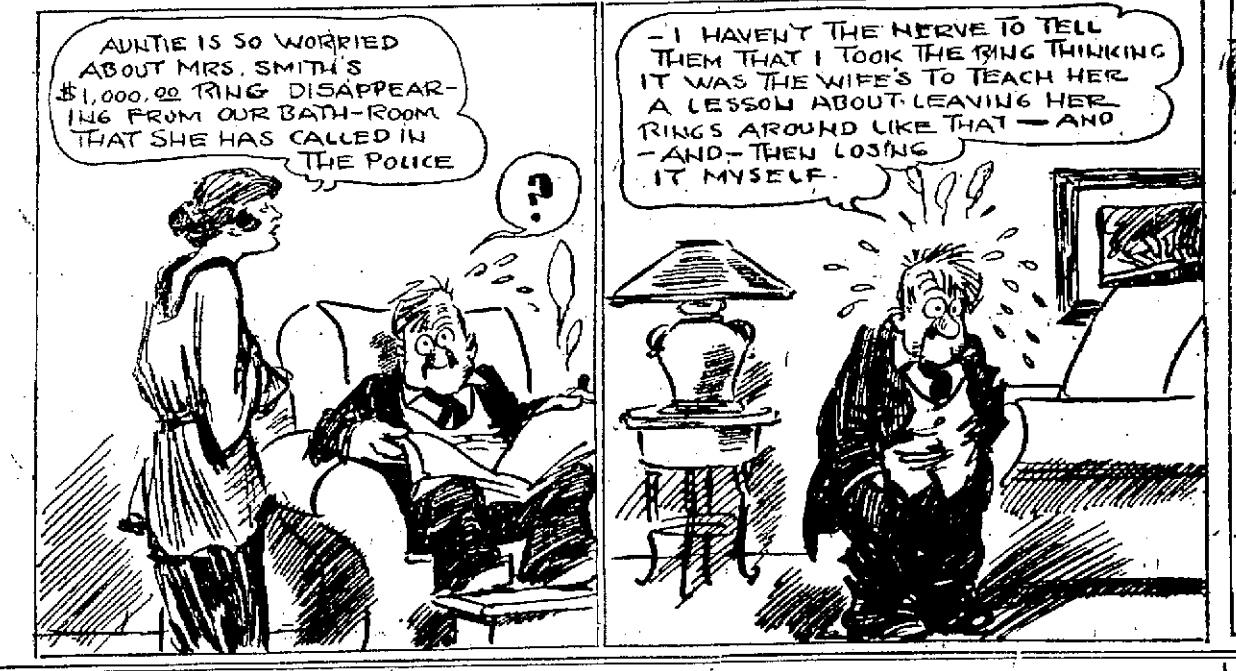

"Two years ago, I had an attack of influenza which left me with a bad cough. Finally this became a case of chronic bronchitis, and for two years, I was unable to do any work except cough constantly night and day, which was the bitterest of all. I tried all kinds of remedies, but nothing helped me.

"Finally I got hold of Milks Emulsion. It benefited me so much, right from the start. The cough was completely cured. In two months I was perfectly cured. I gained in health, strength and flesh rapidly. I am now Mr. Parkhurst, Leon E. W. Harte, Ind.

Coughs like the one above described seldom yield to local treatments. The sure way to reach them is to build up and strengthen the whole system. For any obstinate cough, Milks Emulsion is a remarkable remedy. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and cathartics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. It is a tonic of flesh and strength. Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to run-down, nervous people, and it has produced untold results in many cases of chronic, chronic bronchitis and tuberculosis of the lungs. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with spoon. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if you are not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 50c and $1.00 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sole and guaranteed by J. R. Baker.

PETEY DINK—PETEY BEGINS TO THINK HIS RING TRICK IS A LITTLE UNDERHANDED.

AUNTIE IS SO WORRIED ABOUT MRS. SMITH'S $1,000.00 RING DISAPPEARING FROM OUR BATH-ROOM THAT SHE HAS CALLED IN THE POLICE.

I HAVEN'T THE NERVE TO TELL THEM THAT I TOOK THE RING THINKING IT WAS THE WIFE'S TO TEACH HER A LESSON ABOUT LEAVING HER RINGS AROUND LIKE THAT—AND—AND—THEN LOSING IT MYSELF.

David shuddered as he had not among all the carnage of battle, and his limbs tottered beneath him. Some one of the soldiers raised up his rifle and struck down the boulder as if he were crushing a snake. No one held back his hand.

One, with awkward sympathy, put his hand on the shoulder of the shaken David and led him back to the American camp. Behind them the ruined village lay smoldering in the November sun; but David himself walked as in a dream. Men who met him stepped aside in silence, to let him pass, daring to ask no question. Behind him rose the wailing of the Indian women, mourning for their dead, wailing among the trampled maize; and the unutterable sorrow in his heart grew heavier beneath their wailing lamentation as the stinks of corn are beaten to the golden ground in the cold rains of the dying year.

Mechanically he took up his work of watching over the wounded in the heavy wagons. The camp was struck, the homeward journey begun.

The suffering of the men in the wagons was torture indescribable. Over the uneven ground the oxen dragged the lumbering carts, the wooden disks that served as wheels slipping and jolting over rocks and into ditches with a cruelty which was no less heartrending because it was unavoidable. The carts were springless. Hot with fever under the icy wind and ricked with the terrific jolting, the wounded men raved, cursed, sang in delirium. Of the 151 wounded, 25 died on the merciless journey from the battlefield to the blockhouse on the Vermillion river, where the boats had been left. Day and night David heard their pitiful moaning, the snatches of pleadings, the imprecations and the incoherent wanderings of their tortured minds.

"A tubful of honey in the lean-to and the bear got it!" "That ball went through the hoop!" "Make the stockade higher!" "From Kaskasky with George Clark, I tell ye!" "The Angel Gabriel set his feet on those stones!" "That calf's got the milk-sick!" "No, dearie, there ain't no more meat!" "Teacher, may I get a fresh quilt?" "I'm a old man an' I want some whisky!" "All the Federals' scheming!" "Water! ain't there even some rainwater?" "Oh, Molly, Molly, Molly!" "Watch the right flank! The right flank!" "Water! Water!"

Three miles below Tippecanoe the fleeing Prophet made a night's camp on Wildcat creek, the Panse Pichon of the French. Dubois' scouts found the warm ashes of his campfire there and close by one of the guides picked up a bit of lace. The man put it in the pocket of his shirt and brought it back to the marching column. David was among the men who crowded about him to gaze at the tiny shred of cloth; and having seen it he put out his hand and took it, and no man said him no; for they saw that he had recognized it as a part of a garment of Antoinette O'Bannon, whom he had loved and who was slain. Willingly the man who had found the cloth led David, at his request, back to the ashes of the fire and there left him in silence; and for a long time David stood looking at the ground where Antoinette's feet last had been.

CHAPTER XV. On Wildcat Creek.

Antoinette was dead. The news came to David and left him without hope or aim or wish for life. One of the Indian prisoners told the horrible story of her death to his captors, with a gleam of fiendish malevolence in his eyes.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Nitro-Phosphate to Put On Firm, Healthy Flesh and To Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised, it is evident that the loss of muscle, thin people, flesh, developing arms neck and bust, and replacing ugly lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their emaciated condition.

Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among the druggists as nitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by Smith Drug Co. in Janesville, and most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, nitro-phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

DINNER STORIES

Once when John D. Rockefeller was playing golf a negro had crossed the links. Mr. Rockefeller had just given the ball a vigorous stroke, and the lad received the massive squarely on the head. It was a heavy blow, but it only stunned the boy a little, and after blinking his eyes for a moment he was himself again.

Mr. Rockefeller, who had rushed up, fearing that the boy had been badly injured, was relieved to find that he took it so calmly, and, pulling a $5 from his pocket, he gave it to the youngster as a salve for his feelings.

The boy looked at the bill and grinned with delight. Then he looked at Mr. Rockefeller and inquired: "When is you going to be playin' again?"

For four consecutive nights the hotelman had watched his fair, timid guest fill her pitcher at the water cooler.

"Madam," he said on the fifth night, "if you would ring this would be done for you."

"But where is my bell?" asked the lady.

"The bell is beside your bed," replied the proprietor.

"That the bell!" she exclaimed. "Why the bell told me that was the fire alarm and that I was not to touch it on any account."

"What is your favorite poem?" asked the young man.

"Grey's Elegy," replied the young woman.

"Is it—er—that is to say—do you recite it?"

No, I just said that to fool you. You thought I was going to mention Omar Khayyam, so that you could lead up to that 'book of verses, jug and loaf' stanza."

Young Man Comes Back

One of our young men sure has come to the front in short order and his friends are at a loss to understand his untiring energy and ability to win new results where only a few weeks before he seemed to be all run-down and almost a nervous wreck.

Questioned by a curious friend as to the cause of the sudden change, he said: "I sure was in bad shape and no one knew it better than I did. It had my goat for a while. I was all in and my nerves shot to pieces with worry and sleepless nights. One day I overheard a customer telling what Phosphated Iron had done for him and I could not get a supply quick enough.

"That's the whole story, just Phosphated Iron. My poor tired overworked nerves just seemed to be Phosphated Iron, the way they took hold of it, and say what a roller. I felt like a new man. Could sleep at night, and get up in the morning feeling like a two-year-old. Believe me, I had some appetite too, my weight increased rapidly, my face filled out and the color of perfect health that only goes with pure blood, well fed with iron.

"You can bet I am strong for Phosphated Iron. Everyone who tries it is a booster.

"Do you know even the doctors are to the cause of the sudden change." Special Notice: To insure doctors and their patients getting the Genuine Phosphated Iron we have put in capsules only, so do not allow dealers to sell you pills or tablets.

CARDINALS ALL SET FOR MADISON BATTLE

Takota Cardinals will clash with the speedy Olympic club in basketball battle at the armory tonight beginning at eight-thirty. A preliminary game between the Red Devils and All Stars will begin at seven-thirty.

With the addition to the Card lineup of Hensath and Delmore, the two Camp Grant stars, who put up such stellar exhibitions in the three weeks ago, the local five looks like a sure winner. Gallagher, Truelsen and Otis, three university crack artists, have been added to the Madison team, so that "Peewee" Bonaville and Casserly of the Olympics have a great array of stars.

Person of Beloit has again been secured to hold down one of the guard positions for the Cards with Murphy, Henning and Phillips will be seen at the forward positions, with the big Camp Grant boy, Hensath, at center. Kelly will probably not be seen in a Cardinal uniform again this year, as Kelly and Delmore will be on the side lines.

Murphy is going to have his hands full when he goes up against Benway tonight. The little Madison youth is a dangerous basket-shooter, having upset the dope many times by his accuracy on the hoop.

The Olympics were defeated by the Cards by two points in their last battle here and tonight's contest promises to be an exciting one.

RITCHIE MITCHELL TO

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 6.—Fighting a year-and-a-half, engaged in 35 battles and never was defeated. That's the record Ritchie Mitchell is going to fight against when he meets Johnny Schauer, St. Paul lightweight, when they meet in the wind-up of the Cream City Athletic club's show in the Auditorium, Friday, Feb. 14. No wonder, when he meets Johnny Schauer, St. Paul lightweight, when they meet in the wind-up of the Cream City Athletic club's show in the Auditorium, Friday, Feb. 14.

Schauer entered the game through the four round route in California, but later came back to his home, where he has been a much-sought-after fighter because of his aggressive style.

He was one of the first boxers in the Twin cities to enter the army entering the aviation schools, where he was soon made quartermaster sergeant. He has earned over $10,000 for men fights for different cantonments by his boxing.

LOVEJOY'S MEN COP
FIRST TOURNEY GAME

Stanley Tallman's volleyball cohorts were given hardly a look-in in their game with H. S. Lovejoy's fast combination at the Y. yesterday afternoon. Lovejoy's men copped all three games of the match, the first one by the lop sided score of 21 to 3, the second 21-5 and the third 21-3.

Tallman's helpers did not seem to be able to find the sphere while Lovejoy's bunch batted it all over the lot with much success. Although the losers had eight men and the winners only six, they did not stand a show.

It was the opening game of the business men's volleyball tourney. The next match will be played tomorrow between Billy Mitchell and John Schauer. The latter's team will meet Hubert's aggregation.

The lineups last evening: Lovejoy's team—Wood, Dunwiddie, G. F. Ehringer, L. Levy, and R. G. Cunningham. Tallman's bunch—Erickson, Solfe, Zimmerman, J. K. Jensen, Thorson, Blackman and Dale.

HIGH SCHOOL TO TACKLE DEAF TEAM

With two victories and one defeat on their record, Janesville high school's basketball tossers will take on the State Deaf and Dumb School team of Delavan, at Janesville Saturday evening. The Delavan team has won from several fast teams throughout the state. On Friday of last week they trimmed Brodhead by a 20 to 16 score.

Some members of the Delavan team are older than the local boys and have been playing together for years, so that they have developed a teamwork that is remarkable. In preparation for the contest the local squad is going through nightly practice under the direction of Coach Crabtree.

The lineup of Saturday's game will probably be the same at center, Sprackling and Nuzum at forwards and Powers and Fisher holding down the guard jobs. Black and Decker will also be in suits so as to be ready if needed.

EAGLES WILL SEND
TEAM TO TOURNAMENT

Final arrangements are being made by the Local Order of Eagles for the sending of the Eagle bowling team to the National Bowling Congress to be held at Toledo, Ohio the latter part of next month.

A dancing party will be given in this city on next Tuesday evening, the proceeds of the party being used to defray the expenses of the team to the tournament.

Henry Robbins, owner of the West Side Bowling alley and one of the men of the team is rapidly completing plans for the trip. The team is practicing daily and recent scores are such as to prove beyond all doubt that the best team possible has been secured and that it should make an excellent showing at the tournament.

The team will be composed of Robbins, Kirchhoff, Chilsen, Dietz and Clausen.

Romans Liked Cock Fighting.

In the New Testament the cock is mentioned in reference to the denial of the Lord and indirectly in the "cock-crowing." There is no mention in the Old Testament of the cock or hen. These domestic birds were known to the early Greeks and Romans and probably were introduced by the Romans into Palestine. It is said that these birds were prized by the Romans both as food and for cock fighting.
